Elders Litigation Settled

ASX Announcement No. 31/2010

26 July 2010

Australian Agricultural Company ('AAco') announces legal proceedings between AAco and Elders have been settled today.

AAco instigated the proceedings against Elders in relation to liability regarding nutritional supplements which were supplied, with advice, by an Elders owned business to AAco.

Under the settlement Elders pays AAco cash and supplies merchandise to the AAco Group, to a total value of $4 million.

The matter has been settled in full.
